NO. 05-2-00027-3

CR 30(b)(6) SUBPOENA DUCES TECUM TO ADAMS COUNTY

Perkins Coie LLP

1201 Third Avenue, Suite 4800 Seattle, Washington 98101-3099 Phone: (206) 359-8000

TO: ADAMS COUNTY

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, at the request of Intervenor-Respondent Washington State Democratic Central Committee and pursuant to CR 30(b)(6) and CR 45, to designate one or more officers, directors, managing agents or other persons who consent to testify on your behalf in the above-entitled case, concerning the following subjects:

- The policies and practices adopted or employed by Adams County for the General Election with respect to voter crediting;
- (2) The policies and practices adopted or employed by Adams County for the 2004 General Election with respect to the issuance, receipt and processing of provisional ballots and what specific steps were taken, if any, to ensure compliance with the emergency regulations issued by the Secretary of State and codified at WAC 434-253-047, and when each such step was taken;
- (3) The policies and practices adopted or employed by Adams County for the 2004 General Election with respect to the verification of signatures on provisional ballots;
- (4) The extent to which Adams County counted provisional ballots in the 2004 General Election prior to signature verification, including the specific number of such ballots and the names, addresses, phone numbers of all such voters, their precincts, and their voter registration numbers;
- (5) If Adams County counted provisional ballots prior to signature verification, what steps were taken subsequent to the tabulation of the ballots to verify signatures, who did each such step, what or who caused that step to be taken, and what was the result of those steps (i.e., how many, if any, of the provisional ballots were determined to have been voted by lawfully registered voters).

- (6) The extent to which Adams County counted provisional ballots in the 2004 General Election prior to confirmation of voter registration or determination of whether the voter had already voted, including the specific number of such ballots and the names, addresses, phone numbers of all such voters, their precincts, and their voter registration numbers;
- (7) If Adams County counted provisional ballots prior to confirmation of voter registration or determination of whether the voter had already voted, what steps were taken subsequent to the tabulation of the ballots to confirm voter registration or to determine whether the voter had already voted, who did each such step, what or who caused that step to be taken, and what was the result of those steps (i.e., how many, if any, of the provisional ballots were determined to have been voted by lawfully registered voters).

Such person shall appear at the time, date and place listed below to testify in the above-entitled case, and shall remain in attendance until discharged.

EXHIBIT A

All documents, records, emails, notes, spreadsheets or other materials in your possession, custody, or control, relating to provisional ballots counted in Adams County without first (a) being verified or (b) a determination of whether the voter had already voted or (c) having their signatures checked or verified. The term "document" in this subpoena means any written, typed, graphic, recorded, or electronically stored matter whatsoever. The term "document" thus includes, without limitation, emails, letters, faxes, pictures, files, summaries, spreadsheets, notes, drafts, and working papers. Without limitation, responsive material should include:

- (1) Documents sufficient to identify, for each such ballot, the voter's name, registration address, registration number, and precinct of registration, as well as the precinct in which the ballot was cast.
 - (2) Copies of the envelopes of all such provisional ballots that were counted.
- (3) All internal documents and communications relating to such provisional ballots.
- (4) All external documents and communications relating to such provisional ballots.
- (5) Any communications with the Secretary of State or anyone employed by his office or representing his office regarding such ballots or the issue of verifying provisional ballots or checking the signatures on provisional ballots.
